The Meiji Restoration (1868) marked Japan?s rapid modernization, including its media infrastructure:

- Print Media: Newspapers and magazines proliferated, fostering national discourse.
- Radio and Film: Introduced in the early 20th century, these technologies revolutionized information dissemination.

This perspective highlights the importance of interpersonal communication and social cohesion, key values in Japanese society.

Japan's pioneering use of technology has also influenced media theory:

- The "Techno-Communication" paradigm examines how technological advancements (e.g., mobile phones, high-speed internet, AI) transform communication practices.
